The Universal Systems of Martial Arts Organization has been established to assist in enlightening your path and to enhance your journey by broadening your personal perspective. Experienced martial artists can gain a deeper understanding of their core style after learning to see the interconnectedness of all martial arts. Universal Systems accomplishes this goal by sharing our combined knowledge to educate our members about other styles.

Membership benefits include regular group training sessions (approximately six per year) with organization members and access to special seminars and training opportunities (sometimes at an additional cost).
